

Year 2 Spring Curriculum Map

Science

Uses of Everyday Materials

- Properties of materials
- Uses of materials
- New materials
- Scientists who have invented new materials
- Changes in materials

History

How has air travel changed over time?

Investigate how air travel has changed since the first flight by the Wright Brothers in 1903 .

Why did the Russians send Laika the dog into Space in 1957?

What was the space race and which Countries were involved?

Who was the first man on the moon and What was learnt from this?

Geography

Where in the world?

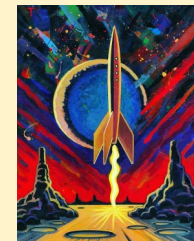

- Name and locate the world's seven continents and five oceans
- There are seven continents on Earth: Asia, Europe, Africa, North America, South America, Australia and Antarctica. The five oceans are the Pacific Ocean, the Atlantic Ocean, the Indian Ocean, the Arctic Ocean and the Southern Ocean.
- Identify the equator and know the effect on weather in regards to position in relation to the equator

Art

Modern Art

- To respond to key pieces of modern art
- To explore the work of Peter Thorpe
- To use a range of mediums to explore and respond to 'Space Art'
- To create a modern representations composition

DT

How have the shape of planes changed over time?

- To investigate shape and it's effect on aerodynamics
- To study how planes have evolved over time
- To design and make different types of planes and aircrafts using different materials.

