

Funk Music

This week we are focusing on Funk Music

Funk is a type of music from the United States that was developed the 1960s by African American musicians. Funk music emphasizes the rhythm of the music. Funk uses many rhythm instruments, such as electric guitar, bass guitar, drums, and electric organ. Funk bands also have a horn section, which includes several saxophone players, a trumpet player, and in some bands, trombone players.

Some common funk instruments include:

bass guitar

horn section

electric organ
